John Deshong

Head of Global Tax, Finance

BIOGRAPHY

John Deshong joined Bechtel in 2005 as head of global tax in the company's finance function.

He was elected a Bechtel principal vice president in 2009.

John brought to Bechtel 25 years of extensive tax expertise and responsibility. He previously served as the vice president of global tax at Edison Mission Group and in various tax legal and leadership positions at Mobil, ARCO Chemical, and Sun Oil Company. John began his career as a tax attorney with the law firm of Montgomery, McCracken, Walker & Rhoads in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

John holds a bachelor's degree in economics and political science from Swarthmore College in suburban Philadelphia. He also earned both a juris doctor degree and a master of laws (taxation) degree from Villanova University School of Law, also in suburban Philadelphia.

Bechtel is one of the most respected global engineering, construction, and project management companies. Together with our customers, we deliver landmark projects that foster long-term progress and economic growth. Since 1898, we've completed more than 25,000 extraordinary projects across 160 countries on all seven continents. We operate through four global businesses: Infrastructure; Nuclear, Security & Environmental; Oil, Gas & Chemicals; and Mining & Metals. Our company and our culture are built on more than a century of leadership and a relentless adherence to our values, the core of which are safety, quality, ethics, and integrity. These values are what we believe, what we expect, what we deliver, and what we live..
